UNFINISHED BUSINESS

1928 H. R. 16 Apr. 9.	Regulation of osteopathy in District of Columbia. (Pending in the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union Apr. 9, 1928. Mr. Chindblom, chairman.)
H. R. 450 Feb. 26.	Educational orders for war materials. (Pending in the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union Feb. 26, 1929. Mr. Kelly, chairman.)

RULES XX AND XXI AS AMENDED JUNE 1, 1920

Section 2, Rule XX:

"2. No amendment of the Senate to a general appropriation bill which would be in violation of the provisions of clause 2 of Rule XXI, if said amendment had originated in the House, nor any amendment of the Senate providing an appropriation upon any bill other than a general appropriation bill, shall be agreed to by the managers on the part of the House unless specific authority to agree to such amendment shall be first given by the House by a separate vote on every such amendment."

Section 5, Rule XXI:

"5. No bill or joint resolution carrying appropriations shall be reported by any committee not having jurisdiction to report appropriations, nor shall an amendment proposing an appropriation be in order during the consideration of a bill or joint resolution reported by a committee not having that jurisdiction. A question of order on an appropriation in any such bill, joint resolution, or amendment thereto may be raised at any time."

CALL OF COMMITTEES UNDER CLAUSE 4, RULE XXIV

"4. After the unfinished business has been disposed of, the Speaker shall call each standing committee in regular order, and then select committees, and each committee when named may call up for consideration any bill reported by it on a previous day and on the House Calendar, and if the Speaker shall not complete the call of the committees before the House passes to other business, he shall resume the next call where he left off, giving preference to the last bill under consideration: Provided, That whenever any committee shall have occupied the morning hour on two days it shall not be in order to call up any other bill until the other committees have been called in their turn."

CALENDAR WEDNESDAY CALL UNDER CLAUSE 7, RULE XXIV

"7. On Wednesday of each week no business shall be in order except as provided by paragraph 4 of this rule unless the House by a two-thirds vote on motion to dispense therewith shall otherwise determine. On such a motion there may be debate not to exceed five minutes for and against.

"On a call of committees under this rule bills may be called up from either the House or the Union Calendar, excepting bills which are privileged under the rules; but bills called up from the Union Calendar shall be considered in Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union.

"This rule shall not apply during the last two weeks of the session.

"It shall not be in order for the Speaker to entertain a motion for a recess on any Wednesday, except during the last two weeks of the session.

"Provided, That not more than two hours of general debate shall be permitted on any measure called upon Calendar Wednesday, and all debate must be confined to the subject matter of the bill, the time to be equally divided between those for and against the bill: Provided further, That whenever any committee shall have occupied two Wednesdays it shall not be in order, unless the House by a two-thirds vote shall otherwise determine, to consider any unfinished business previously called up by such committee, unless the previous question had been ordered thereon upon any succeeding Wednesday, until the other committees have been called in their turn under this rule."

CALENDAR OF MOTIONS TO INSTRUCT COMMITTEES

Clause 4, Rule XXVII:

"4. A Member may present to the Clerk a motion in writing to instruct a committee to report within 15 days a public bill or resolution which has been referred to it 30 days prior thereto (but only one motion may be presented for each bill or resolution). The motion shall be placed in the custody of the Clerk, who shall arrange some convenient place for the signature of Members. A signature may be withdrawn by a Member in writing at any time before the motion is entered on the Journal. When a majority of the membership of the House shall have signed the motion it shall be entered on the Journal, printed with the signatures thereto in the Congressional Record, and referred to the Calendar of Motions to Instruct Committees.

"On the third Monday of each month, immediately after the approval of the Journal, any Member who has signed a motion to instruct which has been on the calendar at least seven days prior thereto, and seeks recognition, shall be recognized for the purpose of calling up the motion, and the House shall proceed to its consideration in the manner herein provided without intervening motion except one motion to adjourn. Recognition for the motions shall be in the order in which they have been entered.

"When the motion shall be called up, the bill or resolution shall be read by title only prior to a second being ordered by tellers. After the reading of the bill by title the motion shall not be submitted to the House unless seconded by a majority of the membership of the House to be determined by tellers and clause 4 of Rule XV shall not apply to such second; if such motion fails of a second, it shall immediately be stricken from the calendar and shall not be thereafter placed thereon.

"If a second be ordered, debate on such motion shall be limited to 40 minutes, one-half thereof in favor of the proposition and one-half in opposition thereto. Such motions shall require for their adoption an affirmative vote of a majority of the membership of the House. Whenever such motion shall prevail the committee shall report said bill or resolution to the House within 15 days thereafter and said bill or resolution shall be referred to its appropriate calendar."

4. CONSENT CALENDAR

Clause 3, Rule XIII:

"3. After a bill which has been favorably reported shall be upon either the House or the Union Calendar, any Member may file with the Clerk a notice that he desires such a bill placed upon a special calendar to be known as the 'Consent Calendar.' 'On the first Monday of each month immediately after the approval of the Journal, and on the third Monday of each month immediately after the disposition of motions to instruct committees which may be called up, the Speaker shall direct the Clerk to call the bills which have been for three days upon the "Consent Calendar." Should objection be made to the consideration of any bill so called, it shall immediately be stricken from such calendar, but such bill may be restored to the calendar at the instance of the Member, and if again objected to by three or more Members, it shall be immediately stricken from such calendar, and shall not thereafter be placed thereon: Provided, That the same bill shall not be called twice on the same legislative day."

The total laws of the Congress numbered 1,722, which were divided as follows: House bills 945, House joint resolutions 60, Senate bills 660, and Senate joint resolutions 57.

The House passed 1,584 House bills and resolutions and 736 Senate bills and resolutions. The House passed 559 House bills, 20 House joint resolutions, 19 Senate bills and joint resolutions which did not become laws.

There were introduced in the Senate 5,903 bills, 224 joint resolutions, 38 concurrent resolutions, and 351 simple resolutions. The Senate passed 941 bills and 79 joint resolutions. The Senate committees made 2,074 reports. The Senate passed 301 Senate bills and resolutions which did not become laws. Of this number 78 were indefinitely postponed in the House because similar House bills had become laws or were further advanced in the process of becoming laws. Of the 660 Senate bills which became laws, 160 were enacted in lieu of an equal number of House bills which had been reported from committees and which were laid on the table to facilitate the enactment of the legislation.

Of the 945 House bills which became laws there were included 8 omnibus pension bills, which, added to 1 Senate omnibus bill, made a total of 9 omnibus pension bills containing 7,620 private bills which were enacted.

The grand total of laws, including those enacted in omnibus pension bills, was 9,333.

The President transmitted to the House 103 messages, executive departments transmitted 876 communications. Petitions filed numbered 13,617. There were 1,422 bills entered upon the Consent Calendar, of which 1,394 were acted upon, leaving 28 upon the Calendar. Two petitions for entry of bills upon the Calendar of Motions to instruct committees were filed but did not receive a sufficient number of signatures.
