"4. A Member may present to the Clerk a motion in writing to discharge a committee from the consideration of a public bill or resolution which has been referred to it 30 days prior thereto (but only one motion may be presented for each bill or resolution). Under this rule it shall also be in order for a Member to file a motion to discharge the Committee on Rules from further consideration of any resolution providing either a special order of business, or a special rule for the consideration of any public bill or resolution favorably reported by a standing committee, or a special rule for the consideration of a public bill or resolution which has remained in a standing committee 30 or more days without action: Provided, That said resolution from which it is moved to discharge the Committee on Rules has been referred to that committee at least seven days prior to the filing of the motion to discharge. The motion shall be placed in the custody of the Clerk, who shall arrange some convenient place for the signature of Members. A signature may be withdrawn by a Member in writing at any time before the motion is entered on the Journal. When Members to the total number of 145 shall have signed the motion, it shall be entered on the Journal, printed with the signatures thereto in the Congressional Record, and referred to the Calendar of Motions to Discharge Committees.

"On the second and fourth Mondays of each month, except during the last six days of any session of Congress, immediately after the approval of the Journal, any Member who has signed a motion to discharge which has been on the calendar at least seven days prior thereto, and seeks recognition, shall be recognized for the purpose of calling up the motion, and the House shall proceed to its consideration in the manner herein provided without intervening motion except one motion to adjourn. Recognition for the motions shall be in the order in which they have been entered on the Journal.

"When any motion under this rule shall be called up, the bill or resolution shall be read by title only. After 20 minutes' debate, one-half in favor of the proposition and one-half in opposition thereto, the House shall proceed to vote on the motion to discharge. If the motion prevails to discharge the Committee on Rules from any resolution pending before the committee, the House shall immediately vote on the adoption of said resolution, the Speaker not entertaining any dilatory or other intervening motion except one motion to adjourn, and, if said resolution is adopted, then the House shall immediately proceed to its execution. NOTE.—House was in recess from Dec. 23, 1931, to Jan. 4, 1932.

* NOTE.—In a statistical comparison the two sessions of the Seventy-first Congress should be grouped, as the bulk of the work of the Congress did not commence until the second session.

The total laws of the first session, Seventy-second Congress, numbered 525, which were divided as follows: House bills 316, House joint resolutions 28, Senate bills 166, and Senate joint resolutions 15.

Of the 316 House bills which became laws, there was included 1 omnibus pension bill containing 283 House bills and 155 Senate bills (added to the House bill as amendments), making a total of 962 bills and resolutions which became laws.

The 962 laws are subdivided as follows: 598 House bills, 28 House joint resolutions, 321 Senate bills, and 15 Senate joint resolutions.

Of the 166 Senate bills and 15 Senate joint resolutions which became laws, 82 bills and 4 joint resolutions were enacted in lieu of an equal number of House bills and House joint resolutions, respectively, which had been reported from committees and which were laid on the table to facilitate the enactment of the legislation.

Exclusive of bills vetoed and the proposed ("lame duck") amendment to the Constitution, the House passed 216 House bills (including 2 omnibus pension bills containing 1,488 bills; a total of 1,702 bills), and 4 House joint resolutions, and 1 Senate bill which did not become laws.

There were introduced in the Senate 4,986 bills, 210 joint resolutions, 35 concurrent resolutions, and 281 simple resolutions.

The Senate passed 525 Senate bills and 47 Senate joint resolutions. The Senate committees made 1,002 reports.

Exclusive of bills vetoed and the proposed ("lame duck") amendment to the Constitution, the Senate passed 355 Senate bills and 31 Senate joint resolutions which did not become laws. Of these 1 bill was indefinitely postponed in the House, 123 Senate bills and 5 Senate joint resolutions were pending on House calendars; and 170 Senate bills and 20 Senate joint resolutions were pending in House committees. One Senate joint resolution was recommitted to committee in the House.

Two Senate concurrent resolutions were pending in House committees.

Thirty-two Senate bills and 2 Senate joint resolutions were indefinitely postponed in the Senate because similar House bills had become laws or were further advanced in the process of becoming laws.

The Senate and House also passed Senate Joint Resolution No. 14, proposing an amendment ("lame duck") to the Constitution, which has been ratified.

Vetoes by message numbered 7. One bill failed to become law through lack of signature after adjournment of the Congress.

Of the bills vetoed there was one omnibus pension bill, containing 186 House bills and 192 Senate bills (added to the House bill as amendments).

There were 432 bills entered upon the Consent Calendar, of which 390 were acted upon, leaving 42 upon the calendar.

Nine motions to discharge committees from consideration of bills were filed, of which 4 were entered on the calendar of such motions and 5 did not receive a sufficient number of signatures for such entry. Of the 4 so entered on the calendar, 3 were rejected by the House and 1 prevailed.

The President transmitted to the House 63 messages; executive departments transmitted 636 communications. Petitions filed numbered 8,542.
